of different people, from all different countries, and all different cultural backgrounds, contributing to a 21st century beauty for Hartford. You can see it in the beautiful children I saw dancing upstairs and all the work done here in the Artists Collective new home. You can see it in the pride of El Mercado and all those beautiful stores I saw up and down the avenue. You can see it in the brownfields transformed and the boarded homes made habitable again. This is what it means to develop America's new markets, and we ought to give the same chance to every hard-working American in every community in this country.

Thank you very much. Thank you.

I want to bring up here a man who was making this speech to me years ago and whose Wall Street project pioneered the partnerships

we want everywhere in America between business and Government, to give people a chance and keep hope alive. Reverend Jesse Jackson. Thank you.

NOTE: The President spoke at 5:40 p.m. in the performance studio at the Artists Collective. In his remarks, he referred to Richard L. Huber, chairman and chief executive officer, Aetna, Inc., who introduced the President; Heidi Miller, chief financial officer, Citigroup, Inc.; Robert W. Fiondella, chairman, president, and chief executive officer, Phoenix Home Life Mutual Insurance Company; Gov. John G. Rowland of Connecticut; State Representative Moira K. Statement on Additional Assistance for Victims of Hurricane Floyd November 4, 1999

Today I will seek congressional approval for $429 million in additional assistance for the victims of Hurricane Floyd in North Carolina, New Jersey, and all the States affected by this disaster. These are existing funds that will be reallocated within the Federal Emergency Management Agency. They will assist in the buyout and relocation of homes located in floodplains that remain vulnerable to future floods.

Additionally, I continue to urge Congress to fully fund my request for SBA's disaster loan program that can help families and small businesses rebuild in the wake of hurricanes and other natural disasters. I have already asked Congress to provide $500 million that will help farmers in New Jersey and other States who have suffered severe crop losses due to drought and flooding. I urge Congress to meet my requests to help alleviate the suffering of those affected by Hurricane Floyd.

Statement on the Death of Daisy Bates November 4, 1999

Hillary and I were very saddened to hear of Daisy Bates' death this morning. She was a dear friend and a heroine. She was known chiefly as a leader during the crisis of Central High School in 1957 and a mentor to the Little Rock Nine. But she was so much more.

President Kennedy so admired her for her civil rights work that he hired her to work in his administration. During her 84 years, she received over 200 awards for her civil rights work, including the NAACP's esteemed Spingarn Award. In 1957, the Associated Press named her one of the top nine news personalities in the world.

We were blessed to have Daisy as a citizen of Arkansas, where she and her husband, L.C., published the award-winning Arkansas State Press newspaper. For over 30 years, it was the only African-American newspaper in the State. Her death will leave a vacuum in the civil rights
